

PROFILE:
Phinjo Sherpa
Nationality: Nepalese

Phinjo is the Country Director of Eco Himal – Society for Ecological Co-operation Alps-Himalaya in Nepal one of the organizing partners of the Saving Mount Everest Project.

He will lead the second phase of Saving Mount Everest Project – developing and implementing the sustainable waste management mechanism in the Everest Region.

He is also the

- Project Coordinator of Community Forest Management in Sagarmatha (Everest) National Park through Mountain Spirit
- Chairperson, Parkland Agro Tourism, based in Kathmandu
- Director, Parkland Developer, based in Kathmandu
- Managing Director, Khumbu Agro Tourism, based in Khumbu

Publications:

- Sherpa - Nepali - English dictionary, 2nd edition 1995
- "Mero Paath" - book of daily prayers and rituals in Sherpa community. In Tibetan and Nepali language.
- "Yeti a Sherpa story for kids" - a children's book.
- Few news articles for newspapers